

The President Woodrow Wilson House Summer 2024 Recap

Armeen Kazemi

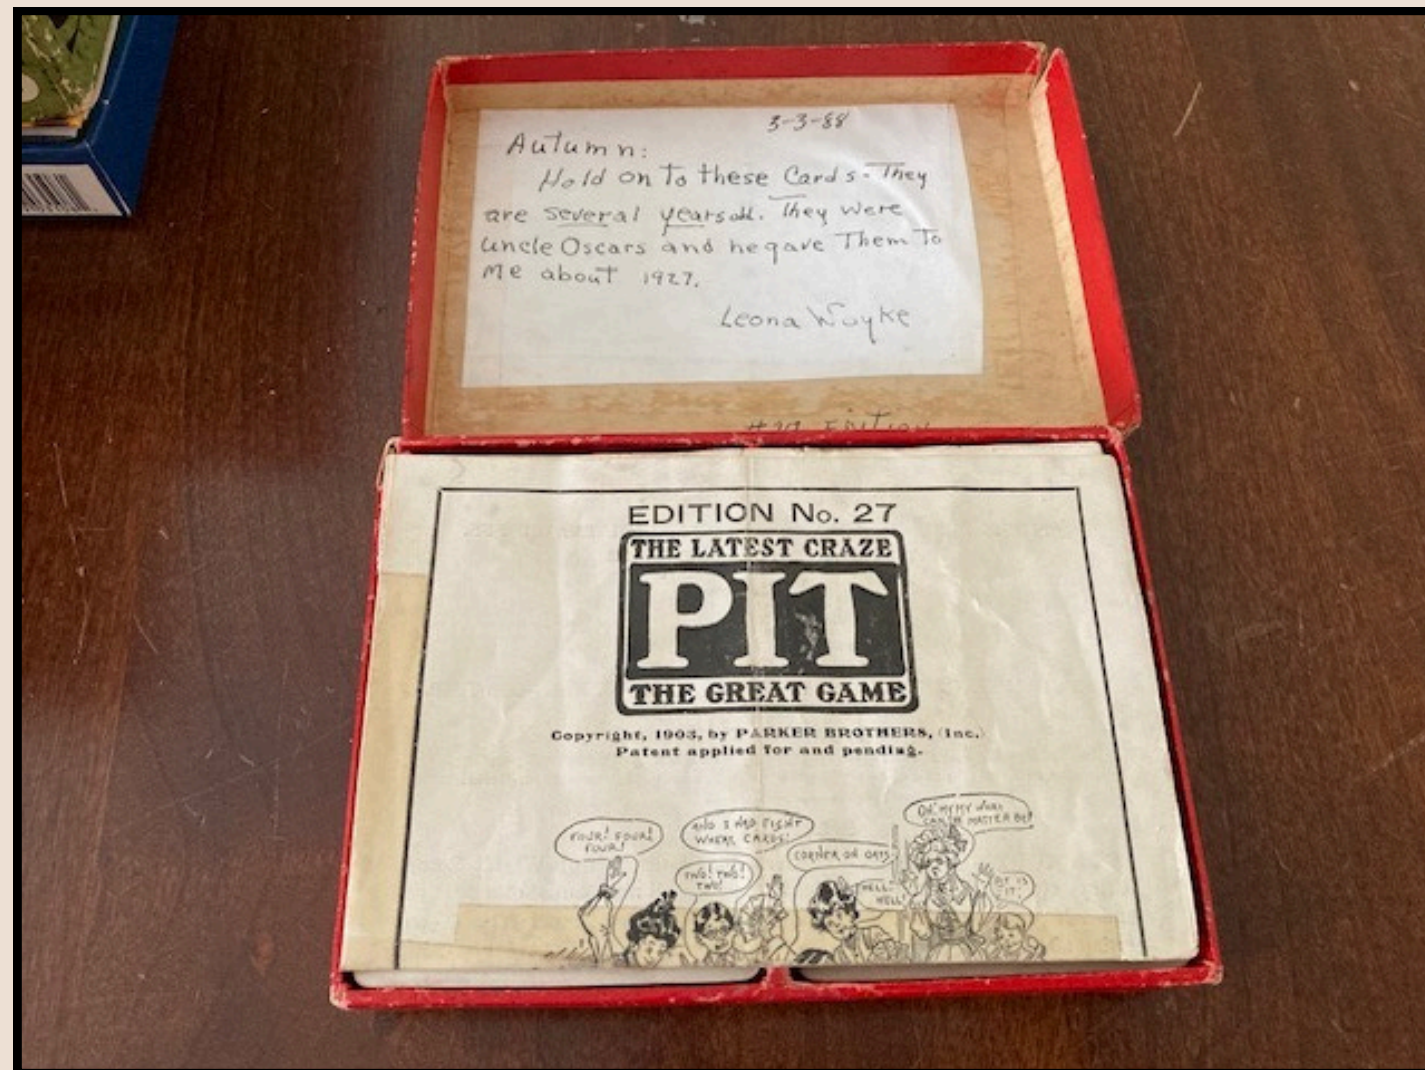

About Me

- Originally from Cherry Hill, New Jersey
- Rising junior at Boston University studying international relations with a minor in history
- Why the Wilson House? - personal interest in presidential history, and interest in Wilson as a key figure in American international relations

Early Work

Vintage Game Night

Shark Week Exhibit

More Recent Work

Wilson, Race, and Civil Liberties

- Researched the relationship between the Wilson Administration and Black Americans
- Also researched the relationship between the Wilson Administration and women in America

Example of a Black American family room from the Wilson era

Personal Connection: Alice Paul

Alice Paul (1917)

Alice Paul's Grave at Westfield Friends School

Other Highlights

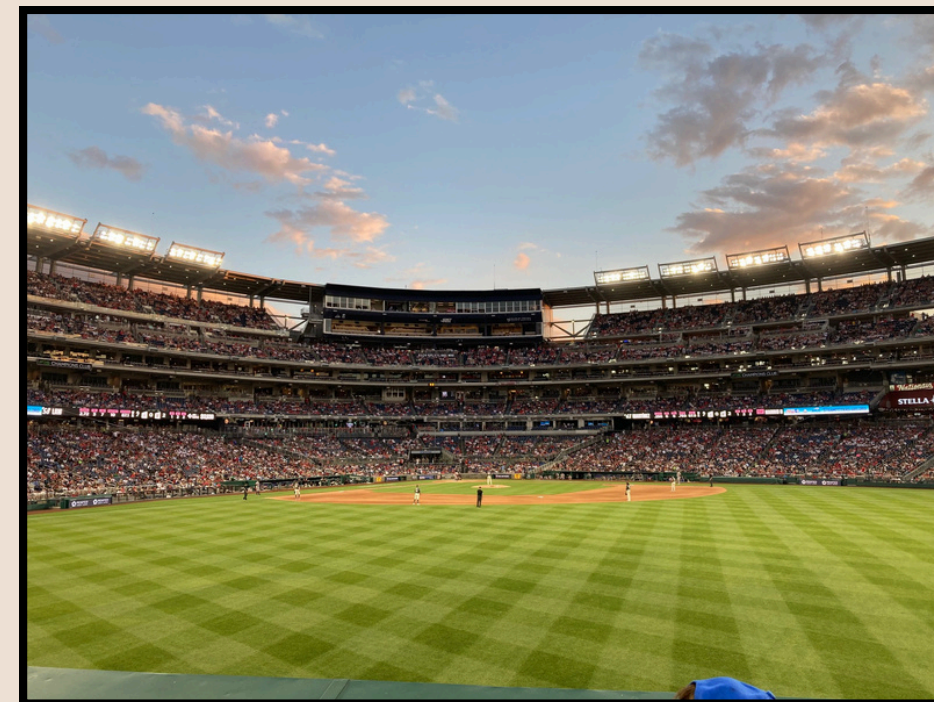

National Zoo

D.C. United vs. Celtic

4th of July

Nationals Game + Flo Rida Concert

National Portrait Gallery

Thank you all for a great summer!